WHAT IS IT?

HouseCalls is a Rancho Cucamonga Public Library program that promotes the use of library materials and services to homebound patrons through free delivery.

WHO CAN USE IT?

HouseCalls is available to individuals who are unable to use the library because of extended illness, disability, and age-related infirmity, who live in private homes and retirement residences within the City of Rancho Cucamonga.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

A volunteer is assigned to the homebound patron. The volunteer will pick up the library books and materials from the library, deliver these to your door, and return any materials to the Rancho Cucamonga Public Library on a 3-week schedule. Books can be renewed for additional time. We will call you with a reminder before your scheduled book delivery, and take requests for any specific book titles, authors or subjects.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO?

Please fill out the following application with your information. The questionnaire portion of the application will help us select the best type of materials for you. Please return this form to the library, by mail or you may have someone drop off the form.

Library staff will call you to set-up your HouseCalls delivery service, as soon as your application is received.

*If you have any questions, please call the library at:
